

Reflections on Seedfolks

by Nick C.

Comparing and Contrasting Ana and Wendell

Ana is a female and Wendell is male. Ana is from Romania and Wendell is from Kentucky. Ana is probably 65-80 years old and Wendell is probably 40-50 years old. Ana replanted Kim's beans and Wendell didn't. Both Ana and Wendell didn't plant their own seed. They both live alone, Ana has arthritis so she had a hard time gardening and Wendell doesn't have any arthritis. They both are good people who

Sam's Pumpkin

Analyzing a Quote From Sam

"That crazy homeless man, the one who used to sleep on the broken-down couch he also missed a lot being a dump" (page 34)

What Sam did for a living is for thirty-six years he worked for different groups, promoting world government, setting up conferences on pacifism, setting up raising money, and stuffing envelopes.

In the quote, the character Sam is talking. Sam is thinking to himself about a homeless man whom he saw on the street when Sam was just walking around the neighborhood.

Sam is observing and thinking in quiet piece watching people go by and walking through the neighborhood.

It would be like if you were driving down Main Street in Hanover and you saw a homeless man whom you thought was crazy and missing a lot where there used to be a dump. Where he could stay and not be bothered.

What I Admire about Kim

I admire Kim because she basically started the whole garden in the first place. She was the first one to plant. She planted lima beans witch grew pretty well. Then Ana came along and pulled them out but replanted the bean after that because she didn't want to hurt the plant. What I admire most about Kim is that she basically started the whole garden.